Terms of service

Design phases

Designs undergo a four phase design process. Between every phase, client feedback is required.

1. Pre-feedback draft
2. Post-feedback draft
3. Final draft
4. Final Design.

If the client wishes to continue to Phase 4, the design is finalized and no further changes can be made.

Refundability

Before a project is initialized, the design cost must be paid up-front. This is subject to an initial 90% refundable condition. The refundable amount becomes 75% of the previous refundable amount with each subsequent phase initiation. When the final design phase is initiated the whole amount is non-refundable.

The afore outlined is binding with the only exception being senior management's discretion.

Upon signing a Non-artistic Art service contract, all clients hereby accept liability of an amount computed under the afore mentioned terms of service.
